

Equality and social justice for an inclusive society

A Lecture Program was organised by the Department of Political Science on 26-02-2020 on the topic “Equality and social Justice for an Inclusive Society”. Mr. Chandra Upaydhyay, Faculty of Tribhuban University acted as the Resource person. In his thought provoking lecture, Mr. Upaydhyay stressed on the significance of equality in all respects of social life for a peaceful society. He has also given strong arguments from gender equality, which is the need of the hour to establish a society based on egalitarianism and inclusive development. An interactive session was also held after the lecture. Altogether 38 students participated in the program.