

1. Outreach programme on educational and research tool (2018)

An outreach programme was conducted by the Department of Botany at Nahira Guimara High School, with the objective of awareness about the Foldscope Microscope, as an educational and research tool. Almost 133 students of the school were exposed to the principle and working of the foldscope microscope as well as the compound light microscope. The programme was well appreciated.