

A Socio –Economic Survey on Poultry works in Rajapukhuri Village in Kamrup District on 2nd November, 2018

A socio-economic survey on ‘Poultry works’ in Rajapukhuri village in Kamrup District was conducted by the Economic Forum, Department of Economics, D.K. College, Mirza on 2nd November, 2018. The faculty members and B.A. 5th semester students took part in the programme. The students made a house to house survey and collected data on the basis of the questionnaire prepared in the department. More than 100 families were surveyed. The objective of the survey was to study the problems and prospects of the poultry works in the village.

