

Opening of food court during College Week held from 07-11th January, 2022.

Report: The food court was organized by the Forum during College week held from 07-11th January 2022 within the college premise, which was inaugurated by the Principal of the college Dr. Nabajyoti Das. A variety of delicacies like cupcakes, papri cahts, pithas, ladoos etc. were prepared by a number of members of the Forum including Dr. Madhuri Saikia, Shabnam Shahin and also by a number of students. Tea, Coffee etc were also present along with seating facilities whereby teachers, students and all the staff of the College can savour the delicacies. Overall, the initiative proved to be a profitable one as a good amount of collection was raised for the Forum. Apart from the monetary value, students and faculties got an opportunity to showcase their cooking skills which also gave a good lesson on how one can be self employed. All the college staff, students, faculties and even the Principal of the College praised this unique initiative of the Women's Forum. The food stall, however, remained closed after 10th January as the college week got suspended following the Covid-19 SOP given by the authority.

Photographs: Faculties and students preparing delicacies at the 'Food Court' installed by the Forum during College Week 2022